

Purchasing Preferences for Recycled Products: Primer & Guide to Laws 1998

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introductory Analysis	3
Laws Still Needed	4
A critique of where we are with “buying recycled”:	4
Is the “Other” system any Better?	6
New Executive Order: Will it Help?	7
Long Term Outlook: Internet, Politics and Paper	8
Conclusion	9
If you Sell a Recycled Product.	9
Purchasing Preferences for Recycled Products: The Primer	10
Is it Working?	11
Who’s Doing What?	13
The Federal Government	13
E.O. 12873	13
E.O. 13101	14
Recycled Content Products Designated for Purchase by the Federal Government	16
State & Local Activities	19
Private Sector Activities	20
The EPA’s WasteWi$e Program	20
Buy Recycled Business Alliance	22
Common Elements of a Successful Program	23
Selecting a Procurement Policy Type	26
Price Preference:	27
Set-Asides:	28
“Recycled Only” Specification:	29
“Wherever Possible/Feasible”, “Best Value” Policy	30
Other Suggestions	30
What is Behind the Numbers	33
Federal Government Compliance	36
GSA Stops Buying Virgin Copy Paper	36
Recycled Content Claims - Caveat Emptor?	39
Scientific Certification Systems (SCS)	39
Green Seal	40
Next Steps - Where Procurement is Going	41
Source Reduction	41
Beyond Commodities	42
Environmentally Preferable Purchasing (EPP)	43
Interview with the Office of the Federal Environmental Executive	45
Interview with the Environmental Purchasing Manager for San Jose	49

State-by-State Recycled Purchasing Bills 1997- 1998 51

RESOURCES 56

APPENDIX:

STATE TABLES: (Separate documents)

Purchasing Preferences Laws Table

State Recycled Procurement Statistics Table

State Green Procurement Results

Enforcement of Purchasing Preference Laws Table

LOCAL TABLE: Purchasing Preference Ordinances

Executive Order 12873

E.O. 13101

Recycled Material Advisory Notices:

 RMAN 1996

 RMAN 1997

 RMAN Update 1998

Local Purchasing Preference Policies:

 King County's Model Policy

 City of Boulder Environmental Purchasing Policy

BACK TO SRLU LIBRARY